8 out of 10 American businesses, including most of the Fortune 500® companies, utilize lease financing as a procurement tool that conserves cash and preserves working capital. Leasing offers 100% financing and often requires nothing down. Lease payment plans offer flexibility and may be structured to match seasonal or fluctuating cash flows.

For almost three decades, VFG has proven that it has the strength and expertise to deliver the funding that organizations want and need. We will consider providing lease financing for most types of equipment and software across a broad spectrum of industries.

We desire to exceed your expectations by providing responsive performance that is second to none. Since we are privately held and independent, we aren't subject to the same onerous "red-tape" regulations that banks and non-private organizations are often faced with. Further, we aren't governed by faceless committees that are rigid, inflexible and deliberate for weeks on end before making what should be a quick common sense business decision.

Let us work for you. Our representatives are experts at structuring lease financing solutions that are creative, timely, and designed to meet your budget, cash flow, tax and accounting parameters. Please help us understand your objectives and the particular challenges your business faces. How can we help you achieve your vision?
